ANDERSON BROTHERS BANK DONATES $10,000 TO AMERICAN RED CROSS FOR HURRICANE FLORENCE FLOOD RELIEF IN SOUTH CAROLINA

Monday, September 24, 2018, Mullins, SC- In response to the massive flooding in our communities Anderson Brothers Bank donated $10,000.00 to American Red Cross Eastern SC Chapter. Hurricane Florence left behind devastation that has left many residents displaced and not able to stay in their homes.

An account for Nichols Disaster Recovery is still active at Anderson Brothers Bank for anyone interested in making donations. Helping people affected by Hurricane Florence with your donation enables the preparation for, response to and helping people recover from disaster.

The American Red Cross is recognized best for blood drives and their response to huge disasters but they do so much more. Every year, the Red Cross is there for hurricane, earthquake, and other disaster victims including families forced from their homes by fires. The American Red Cross helps people in emergencies no matter the number of lives involved. “We have over 200 volunteers in South Carolina from Alaska, Orlando, New Orleans, and Chicago and everywhere in between,” said Amy Brauner, Executive Director with American Red Cross. “Volunteers not only provide support at our shelters but have also been delivering hot meals across Eastern South Carolina to families affected by the flooding waters, first responders and within our shelters.”
