News Release

Anderson Brothers Bank to Hold Grand Opening Ceremony for Summerville Branch

MULLINS, July 10, 2017 – Anderson Brothers Bank will celebrate the grand opening of their newest branch, located in the Summerville community of Berkeley County, at 2139 North Main Street (in the Pope Plaza) on Tuesday, July 25th. Ribbon cutting will occur at 10:30am with a catered lunch from 11:00am – 2:00pm and refreshments served all day. The Summerville office will be Anderson Brothers Bank's 22nd full service branch and its 1st location in the Lowcountry.

Anderson Brothers Bank President and CEO David E. Anderson, Area Executive Paul Lee, and Branch Manager Linda Moneymaker, along with other Anderson Brothers Bank representatives, will be on hand to discuss the bank's future vision for the Charleston market. They will be joined by local dignitaries as well as representatives from the Berkeley County and Summerville Chambers of Commerce.

Anderson Brothers Bank was established in 1933, and the bank has enjoyed a stable and prominent position in the banking community of the Pee Dee and Coastal regions. With this new branch in Summerville, the bank will continue expand the scope of their services in this neighboring market.
